"Subjugation." Under this caption the Nashville Union, a pa per just started in Tennessee under the auspices of Governor General ANDY JOHNSON, and reflect ing his views, gives utterance to the following sentiments in regard to the objects of the war and the purposes of the National Administration. The source from whence the article came gives it some significance, and whether intended or no some of its utterances are two edged swords as they cut both ways. We give the article entire: Whenever we hear a secessionist deprecating the idea of the subjugation of the revolted States and declaring it to be impossible, we are some-what at a loss to decide whether he is crazy or a knave. The idea that the States in the Union. or any one of them have the slightest desire to keep the revolted States in subjection, or deprive them of any privileges which they themselves enjoy, is too absurd, preposterous and unfounded to be entertained one moment by any body out of Bedlam. The charge is an unfounded, audacious, unmitigated lie, for we may as well be plain about it. The whole Union army, from the highest General to the lowest private, laugh immoderately at the thought that any body out of a mad house or South Carolina, should suppose the Union men would, if they could do so without a blow, hold the seceded States in any other condition, or with any less privileges than the loyal States enjoy.

This whole charge is gotten up by knaves and believed by persons who have either feeble wits, or are too much agitated to use them properly. All under heaven that the Federal Government proposes to do is to establish a uniform supremacy of law over this nation. If the routed rebels of Pea Ridge, Winchester, Fort Donelson and Pittsburg, defeated, discomfitted and utterly as they are, will say, "We mean to obey the laws just as we did one year ago, and will submit to the voice of the majority, as laid down in the great charter of our national organization," then the work of our troops will have been finished, and they will all go cheerfully and gladly back to their plows, their looms and their anvils. But no rebel need lay the flattering unction to his soul that the Union soldiers will consent to less than this. Never, never, never, will they suffer the galaxy of the American nation to be deprived of a single star. They will face fire, and shell, and shot, and saber stroke and bayones, to keep the golden chain of the

They know too well its boundless cost. A nillion bosoms shall be riven before one golden link is lost. Is it subjugation to obey laws you have made yourself? Is it slavery to venerate Constitutions you have lived under for ten, twenty, thirty and forty years, not only without complaint, but with rapturous approbation? Is it conquest to say that public faith shall be kept, and sacred covenants entered into voluntarily by a whole people, must and shall be observed? We think not. Yet in this lies the soul of the war against the present rebellion. And on this basis it will surely be prosecuted, even though every man now in arms against the Government and the public safety should have to perish on the battle-field. THE UNION MUST AND SHALL BE PRESERVED!

The Union Forever!

The Great Popular Voice of Chicago-Glorious Uprising of the Conservative People-Francis C. Sherman for Mayor and the whoie Democratic City Ticket Elected-Majority 1,183-Eight of the ten Wards Elect Democratic Aldermen-

The Waterloo of Abolitionism. The joy in Chicago over the victory of the Union arms at Fort Donelson was scarcely greater than that manifested last night over the Union victory won in the municipal election yesterday.

Bonfires burned in all directions, the streets swarmed with happy faces and the air was filled with jubilant shouts Great as the victory was at Fort Donelson, we doubt if it was of so much value to the Uniou cause as will be the civil victory of yesterday in The one was a victory over rebels in arms; the other is a victory over men who are really more dangerous enemies of the Union than rebels in arms. It was a victory over abolitionism. Since the reception of Wendell Phillips in this city, the men who brought him here, and who applanded his treasonable utterances in Bryan

Hall, and who have defended him since his departure, have grown bold, and, as the municipal election approached, they determined to seize the machinery of the Republican party, and convert it to the uses of placing before the voters a ticket peculiarly their own. This they accomplished under the leadership of the morning abolition newspaper sheet. The climax of their boldness was in calling their ticket a "Union This done, the Democracy and other conservative citizens had no alternative to bringing out a Democratic ticket. Such a ticket was brought out on Saturday, headed by Francis C. Sherman for Mayor, and yesterday it was elected by eleven hundred and eighty-three majority! Seven, and perhaps eight, of the ten wards elect Democratic Aldermen!

It is emphatically a victory of the Constitution and the Union-the old Constitution and the old Union-alike over Southern secessionism and Northern abolitionism.

and of the Northwest, is a loud voice to the President of the United States, and to all others in authority at Washington. It is a voice of approval of every act of hostility by the President to the designs of Abolitionism thus far, and of warning to him and to every body that those designs do fearfully provoke the popular displeasure.

It will be a cheering victory to the soldiers in iant exploits. And it will cheer the Union men of the South.

If this be the voice of Chicago, they may well reason that Abolitionism has culminated as a power in the North. All bonor to the Democracy and other conservative people of Chicago, who have won the victory. All honor to Mr. Sherman, who has so gallantly led the victors through the battle.-Chicago Times.

General Grant's Official Report. HEADQUARTERS DISTRICT OF WAST TENN ?

Pittsburg, April 8, 1862

Captain N. H. McLean, A. A. Gen, Dept. of the Mississippi, St. Louis, Missouri: General: It becomes my duty again to report

another battle, fought between two great armies; one contesting for the maintenance of the best government ever devised, the other for its de struction. It is pleasant to record the success of the army contending for the former principle.

On Sunday morning our pickets were attacked and driven in by the enemy. Immediately the five divisions stationed at this place were drawn up in line of battle ready to meet them. The battle soon waxed warm on the left and center.

varying at times to all parts of the line. The most continuous firing of nusketry and artillery ever heard on this continent was kent up until nightfall, the enemy having forced the entire line to fall back nearly half way from their camps to the landing. At a late hour in the afternoon a desperate effort was made by the enemy to turn our left and get possession of the landing, transports, &c. This point was guarded by the gunboats Tylor and Lexington-Captains Gwinn and Shirk, United States Navy, commanding-

Gen. Sherman, however, followed the enemy, finding that the main body of the army had retreated in good order. Hospitals of the enemy were found all along the road as far as pursuit was made. Dead bodies of the enemy and many graves were also found. I enclose herewith the report of Gen. Sherman, which will explain more fully the result of this pursuit. Of the part taken by each separate command, I cannot take special notice in this report, but will do so more fully when reports of Division commanders are handed in.

Gen. Buell, coming on the field with a distinct army, long under his command, and which did such efficient service, commanded by himself in person on the field, will be much better able to notice those of his command who particularly distinguished themselves, than I possibly ces.

I feel it a duty, however, to a gallant and able officer, Brigadier General W. T. Sherman, to make a special mention. He not only was with his command during the entire of the two days' action, but displayed great judgment and skill in the management of his men. Although severely wounded in the hand the first day, his place was never vacant. He was again wounded, and had three borses killed under him.

In making this mention of a gallant officer, no disparagement is intended to the other of commanders, Major Generals John A. McClernand and Lew. Wallace, and Brigadier Generals S. A. Hurlburt, M. B. Prentiss and W. H. L. Wallace, all of whom maintained their places with credit to themselves and the cause. Gen. Prentiss was taken prisoner in the first day's action, and Gen. W. H. L. Wallace severely, probably mortally wounded. His Assistant Adjutant General, Captain Wm. McMichael, is missing, probably taken prisoner.

My personal staff are all deserving of particular mention, they having been engaged during the tated by humanity. entire two days in carrying orders to every part of the field. It consists of Col. J. D. Webster, Chief of Staff; Lieut. Col. J. B. McPherson, Chief Engineer; assisted by Lieuts, W. L. B. Jenny and Wm. Kossac, Capt. J. A. Rawlings, A. A. General, W. S. Hiffyer, W. R. Rawley and C. B. Pork Packing in the West. The Cincinnati Price Current gives complete returns of the pork packed in the West during 1861-2, which show that it was the largest ever cured any previous year. And even these do not show the increase of the crop, as large numbers were shipped from points in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys in consequence of the feeling of insecurity consequent upon the existing rebellion. The figures for Tennessee were furnished by the agent employed by the rebel Government to supervise the packing, and most of those thus packed were purchased in Kentucky at high rates. The following is the total packing published by the Price Cur	rent:

	1860-1.	1861-2
Ohio	627,131	787,439
Indiana	382,616	486,243
Illinois	509,750	841,473
Iowa	153,241	196,373
Missouri	186,176	133,637
Kentucky	251,896	144.943
Wisconsin	53,260	100,550
Tennessee	none.	182,000
Grand Totals	2.164.070	2.872.666

Thus, it is seen, that the increase in numbe is 708,596, including Tennessee, and without thi State, 526,596. This increase is equal to about 325% per cent.

With reference to the increase in weight, w did not, as usual, succeed in obtaining the aver age weight of hogs and yield of lard per ho from all the packing points, bot, still, from sufficient number of places to give us a correct basis upon which to make our calculations which show the following result:

Average weight Yield of Lar per hog. 1860-1 1861-2 1860-1 1861-Ohio, lbs......226 230 3016 Indiana, lbs . . . 2133/4 2211/4 30 Illinois, lbs...2241 236 Kentucky, lbs. 212 221 . 30 2-3 Missouri, lbs. . 206 6-7 227 30 5-12 Iowa, lbs.....233 2-3 224 30 2-5 Wiconsin, lbs. .229 260 The aggregate weight of an equal number of hogs packed at all those places from whence the average weight was furnished this year, compare with last as follows:

1861-2......415,751,316 1860-1.....397,856,954 Increase this season. This is equal to about 41/2 per cent., which, added to the increase in number, swells the total increase to 371% per cent., equal to 803,410

The yield of lard has been large, unusually so, in many cases, owing to the fact that at quite a large number of places, a great portion of the Between Main Street and the River, sides were rendered into lard. The yield of lard per hog last season, was 32 lbs, and this season it was 34 lbs, showing an increase of two lbs per hog. Taking the whole number of hogs packed each season, as given, the total yield of lard would compare as follows:
